Free Compliance and Pollution Prevention Assistance for Ohio Businesses

Wednesday June 6th, 2012 10:00 a.m.to 11:00 a.m. E.S.T.

Many businesses are not aware that Ohio EPA's Office of Compliance Assistance and Pollution Prevention (OCAPP) helps businesses of all sizes comply with environmental regulations and identify pollution prevention opportunities that can save money while at the same time protect the environment. During this one-hour webinar, OCAPP staff will describe the free and confidential services that OCAPP offers to businesses.

Topics covered include:

- Free services available from OCAPP to help your business comply with Ohio environmental regulations and limit potential for violations or penalties.
- Case studies of OCAPP's free pollution prevention services that have helped businesses in Ohio save time and money.

Presenters:

Dave Foulkes, has been with OCAPP since 1998. He works with businesses to evaluate and integrate pollution prevention opportunities, waste minimization, and sustainability options. He also develops and manages OCAPP's publications. Dave previously worked as an environmental laboratory technician and as a field technician for an environmental consulting firm.

Dan Sowry joined OCAPP in April 2008. He provides compliance assistance in all program areas: air, water and waste management. Dan previously worked for the Ohio EPA's Division of Hazardous Waste Management and the E-check program in Ohio EPA's Division of Air Pollution Control.
