

Notifier

---

Happy Fall Everyone,

After a taking the summer off, DHWM's newsletter, the Notifier, is back in action with a new format. If you have any thoughts on the Notifier, you can reply directly to this e-mail or contact Tammy McConnell at 614.644.2922.

Got questions? We have answers! - Get to know Ohio EPA's Answer Place application and get your environmental regulatory questions answered quickly and accurately.

Finding Compliance Information on the Web - Want to check out the compliance status of a facility in your neighborhood? Learn how using U.S. EPA's web-based ECHO database.

Federal Rule-making Update - Your guide to what's happening in RCRA at the federal level.

New Ban on Mercury Button Cell Batteries - Starting January 1st, mercury containing novelties that contain mercury batteries will be banned for sale or distribution in Ohio.

Ohio/Federal Program Differences - While every effort is made to strive for consistency in state and federal program perspectives, complete equivalency is not always possible. Find out why in this article.

Coming Soon: Guidance on Pharmaceutical Waste Disposal - Be on the lookout for a this new guidance from DHWM which discusses proper management and disposal options for hazardous pharmaceutical wastes.

View past issues of the Notifier.

---

You can change your subscription status by logging in to Answer Place and reviewing your "Profile" information. If you've not used Answer Place before, you can log in using your e-mail address only - a password is not required initially. You are free to add additional information to your profile as you like (company name, phone number, etc) and change your subscription status (subscribe to additional groups or unsubscribe).