Fees for the off-site disposal of hazardous waste.

- (A) Owners or operators of disposal facilities that are "off-site facilities," as defined in ~~division (A) of section 3734.18 of the Revised Code and in~~ rule 3745-50-32 of the Administrative Code, and which hold a permit, must collect fees on the disposal of hazardous waste as follows:
- (1) Hazardous waste disposed of by deep well injection- four dollars and fifty cents per ton;
  - (2) Hazardous waste disposed of by land application or landfilling- nine dollars per ton.
- (B) The owner or operator of the hazardous waste facility must prepare and file with the director monthly returns showing the total tonnage received for disposal at the gate of the facility, and the total amount of the fee to be submitted to the director. Each such return must be filed by mailing the same to the director with payment of the amount of the fee shown to be due therein. Each such return must be filed on or before the fortieth day after the end of the month to which the return applies.
- (C) The time within which the owner or operator is required to file the return set forth in paragraph (B) of this rule may be extended not more than thirty days, provided an application requesting such extension, with an accompanying detailed description as to why such extension is requested, is filed in writing and has been received by the director to be filed, and such application has been approved by the director.
- (D) The owner or operator of the hazardous waste facility must keep at the facility a daily log containing the information required to be in the return filed with the director pursuant to paragraph (B) of this rule. The daily log must be available for viewing by the director or his designee during normal operating hours. The daily log must be preserved for a period of three years and such retention period is automatically extended during the course of any unresolved enforcement action regarding the facility or as ordered by the director.
- (E) Fees, returns, and extension of time applications required to be filed with the director under this rule must be mailed to the following address: "Ohio EPA, Division of ~~Hazardous~~Materials and Waste Management, Attn: Chief, P.O. Box 1049, Columbus, Ohio 43216-1049."
